

FACULTY
(In order of appearance)

LARRY RICE is certified as a Family Law Specialist by both the National Board of Trial Advocacy and the Tennessee Commission on Specialization. He has authored several books including The Complete Guide to Divorce Practice, Forms and Procedures for Lawyers, First, Second and Third Edition. Mr. Rice has lectured at eight American Bar Association conventions as well as to lawyers from Canada to the Caribbean and from Vermont to Hawaii. A graduate with distinction and honors from Rhodes College, Mr. Rice also studied at British Studies, University College, Oxford, England.

NICK RICE is a graduate of Christian Brothers High School and the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Mr. Rice received his J.D. from the Cecil C. Humphrey School of Law. He is the senior associate at Rice, Amundsen & Caperton.

DR. JOHN LEITE is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Cordova, Tennessee. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Clemson University in 1979. Dr. Leite completed his internship training with the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Tennessee Medical School in Memphis, Tennessee. He has written numerous articles in those areas as well as a book on parenting adolescents. Dr. Leite has lectured nationally and worked extensively with couples and individuals in family law and divorce litigation for over thirty years.

ROBERT VANCE, CPA/ABV/CFF, CVA, CFP is a forensic CPA. Mr. Vance focuses on business valuation, divorce support, and PI and business economic damages. Mr. Vance has qualified as an expert over fifty times in regional courts.

COBLE CAPERTON is a graduate of Rhodes College and the University of Memphis Law School. For the last 28 years he has practiced civil and criminal litigation, environmental law, family law and business law. He is certified by the Supreme Court of Tennessee as a General Civil Rule 31 Listed Mediator.

JOSEPH BARTON is a graduate of the University of Connecticut and University of Memphis School of Law. He has practiced in Shelby County for 17 years where he represents many divorce attorneys for collection of their fees and awards to their clients.

JENNIFER L. BELLOTT is a 2008 graduate of the Cecil C. Humphrey School of Law. Ms. Bellott was named the National Best Advocate in the 2008 ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition, the award given to the best oral advocate in the national competition.

CHANCELLOR DJ ALISSANDRATOS, ret., served on the Chancery Court from 1978 until his retirement in 2006. A graduate from University of Tennessee, Chancellor Alissandratos received his J.D from the University of Memphis. While on the bench, he mediated hundreds of cases including complex contract, construction, domestic relations, and other civil cases.

SHEREE L. HOFFMAN is a trial attorney with the Hoffman Law and Mediation Office. She has practiced primarily in the area of family law since 1983. Since 1997 she has been certified as a mediator in both civil and family law cases including those involving domestic violence. Ms Hoffman is a member of the Board of Directors of the Memphis Bar Association and the Executive Board of the Memphis Bar Association.

ANDREA SCHULTZ, CHERYL WESTLAKE, and TERESA BRENTS, received their Associate of Applied Science in Paralegal Studies from Southwest Tennessee Community College. Mrs. Schultz earned the Outstanding Student-Paralegal Studies award and has been profiled in NFPA's semi-monthly periodical National Paralegal Reporter. With MICHELLE PRESLEY-BRADY they are all active members of the Greater Memphis Paralegal Alliance and the Memphis Paralegal Association.

DR. FRED A. STEINBERG received his PhD from the California School of Professional Psychology-Fresno in 1977. He has been in the private practice of forensic and clinical psychology in Tennessee for 30 years. Dr. Steinberg's practice consists of forensic consultations in both civil and criminal cases throughout the southeast.

STEPHEN CONN is the director of Medical Testing Resources. He is a graduate of Indiana University (BS, '74). Medical Testing Resources was formed shortly after the World Trade Center disaster to provide screening services as the Transportation Security Administration was formed. The company provides DNA-based services for human identification, relationship and paternity determination, infidelity documentation, immigration and sexual assault cases.

KELLY L. DOBBINS is a fully accredited member of the Drug and Alcohol Testing Industry Association (DATIA) and the organization's Inspiration Award winner of 2005. Kelly L. Dobbins owns and operates Mid-South Drug Testing (MSDT), a DATIA accredited collection facility. She earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in Criminal Justice from the University of Memphis (1989, 1997).

VIRGINIA SCHWAMM (Ginny) was admitted to practice in 1990 and is still licensed. She received her B.S. and J. D. from the University of Tennessee. She practices with Schwamm, Albiston and Smith, PLLC, in Knoxville where she was recently voted, "Most Likely to Appear on Geraldo", by her peers. She is certified as a Specialist in Family Law because she is too lazy to learn anything new and she wishes that those fools in the legislature in Nashville would quit changing the law.

LUCINDA ALBISTON is a 1993 graduate of the University of Tennessee College of Law and is a partner in the firm of Schwamm, Albiston and Smith, PLLC in Knoxville, Tennessee, practicing primarily family law. Ms. Albiston is also a Rule 31 Listed Family Mediator.

C. MARK DONAHOE is a shareholder with Hardee, Martin & Donahoe in Jackson, TN. He is the past Chairman of the Technology Section of the Tennessee Bar Association and regularly lectures on the uses of technology both in the practice of law and the presentation of witnesses and exhibits at trial.